

So when you hear a politician or an editor or a commentator declare that "Reagan ran up the Federal debt" or that "Bush ran it up," bear in mind that the Founding Fathers, two centuries before the Reagan and Bush presidencies, made it very clear that it is the constitutional duty of Congress—a duty Congress cannot escape—to control Federal spending—which they have not for the past 50 years.

The fiscal irresponsibility of Congress has created a Federal debt which stood at $4,904,368,578,709.58 as of the close of business Tuesday, June 6. This outrageous debt, which will be passed on to our children and grandchildren, averages out to $18,617.07 on a per capita basis.

PROCLAMATION FOR VIRGIL "SKIP" BOWER OF KANSAS CITY

Mr. ASHCROFT. Mr. President, as the new Republican Congress attempts to put government back into the hands of the people and bring back a sense of independence rather than dependence for so many citizens, it is important to recognize those individuals who have done their part at the community level, the very core of our society, to promote responsibility in others. I am proud to recognize a Missourian from Kansas City, Mr. Virgil Bower, known to most as "Skip," who has devoted his life to influencing others and serving as a community activist, volunteer, and role model in Missouri for over 60 years.

Mr. Bower began his volunteer service in 1934 as Scoutmaster to Boy Scout Troop 122, and continues to serve to this day. He has been in the banking business in North Kansas City since 1948, serving as a public relations representative. Throughout his career he has remained active in civic organizations. He has been publicly recognized as an outstanding citizen and community leader, having even been called a legend in the North Kansas City area.

Mr. Bower is a man of dignity and humility who has worked hard. Shortly after he graduated from high school, Mr. Bower got a job washing dishes in a cafeteria in downtown Kansas City. He saved enough money to attend college and graduated from William Jewell in 1933. He began his career as a school teacher and found gratification in influencing and motivating young people to strive for excellence. He later became the principal of McElroy Dagg Elementary School, only to have his tenure cut short by the bombing of Pearl Harbor. Like so many young men, Mr. Bower answered the call of his country and served in World War II as an officer in the Navy.

Skip Bower has influenced many young people throughout the years, and many have followed in his footsteps, becoming community volunteers and serving in World War II, Korea, and Vietnam.

Recently, I received a letter from a man from Kansas City whose father died when he was very young. He was fortunate enough to join Boy Scout Troop 122 under Mr. Bower, who proved to be a source of guidance and influence. The young man grew up to be a successful citizen who attributes his sense of civic duty and leadership to Skip Bower. But that is just one example of how Skip Bower influenced a life and saw a young person grow into a responsible, productive citizen. There have been many more.

For over 60 years Mr. Bower has quietly continued to touch the lives of students, Scouts, and North Kansas City citizens who know him from his banking job, the Kiwanis Club, or various other community activities. His accomplishments have not gone unrecognized. He was recently selected by Newschannel 4 as one of Kansas City's Symbols of Caregiving, an award reserved for 11 outstanding citizens who provide an example of hope and service for everyone. The Kansas City Northland Regional Chamber of Commerce sponsors the Virgil Bower Award for Community Service, named in his honor.

Now in retirement at the age of 87, Mr. Bower continues to work half days greeting customers at Boatman's Bank in Kansas City. He takes pride in his work, and knows most of the customers who come through the door, as well as most people in North Kansas City. His wife of 50 years died over 10 years ago, but her portrait sits in his living room as a reminder of the life they shared. The words "loyal, committed, and dedicated" are commonly used to describe Skip Bower. He deserves our praise and recognition for the outstanding contributions he has made to Kansas City and America. Mr. Bower will leave a legacy of morality, responsibility, service, and leadership.

TRIBUTE TO JERRY JORY

Mr. REID. Mr. President, in the mid-1960's, when I first decided to seek political office, I ran for a seat on the hospital board of trustees for Southern Nevada Memorial Hospital. This was not considered a political plum, nor did the race engender much public attention. For me, however, it was incredibly significant, as most firsts are.

I mention this because during that campaign, I met a man who, without motive or want, came to me offering support and assistance in my campaign. He owned a pawn shop in downtown Las Vegas, heard I needed help, and offered it. Since then, I have been the lucky beneficiary of Jerry Jory's support as a friend, as an advisor, and as an ally. And he has never asked for anything in return—because that's the kind of guy he is.

On Friday, June 16, Jerry will be honored by the many friends he has made at a special tribute sponsored by the Las Vegas Police Protective Association. I can say, without hesitation, that there is no one more deserving of this attention than my friend, Jerry Jory.

Jerry is perhaps most well known for his service to his country as a member of the U.S. Navy and as a captain in the Naval Reserve. During the Korean war, he served on the U.S.S. Bremerton as a cryptographer breaking Korean and Russian codes. As an active reservist in the Vietnam war, Jerry served in the Pentagon in the sensitive and highly classified position in charge of the staffing of troops and officers. Since then, Jerry has continued to serve our country in the reserves, and he is held in high esteem by his peers and his subordinates because of his thoughtful and even-tempered approach to whatever task is assigned.

Since my election to the Congress in 1982 and the Senate in 1986, Jerry has been my military adviser, and I have relied on his opinion and counsel. He has also served as the chairman of my Academy selection committee. As a result of his efforts, that committee has developed the strongest selection outreach program in the country and Nevada has sent stellar candidates to our military academies.

Jerry is the finest example of a patriot that I know—a man who serves with an unassuming yet passionate and dignified love for his country.

Jerry Jory earned a degree in education and was prepared to enter the teaching profession. However, after returning from Korea, he received an offer to become partners in a pawn shop in Las Vegas. For 40 years, Jerry has operated the Hock Shop, and for those 40 years, he has been a compassionate, determined, and persistent leader in our business community. He has earned a reputation for his sincere concern for his fellow human beings, and there is no one who, needing his help, is ever refused.

In addition to all of his work for his community and his country, Jerry has also been a devoted family man. Together with his wife June, they have raised ten wonderful children—Teri, Toni, Jerry, Jason, Shannon, April, Kit, Sean, Kelly, and Gary. I personally don't know how Jerry has found the time for all that he does; but he must be doing something right—everyone who knows him can tell by the smile on his face.

Jerry has faced many battles in his life, but today he may be facing his toughest. He has recently been diagnosed with cancer, and he will confront this illness with the same determination that he has shown his entire life. And I know there will be hundreds of friends standing beside him to help.

I am proud to be Jerry's friend, and I wish him the very best as he is honored by the community that is his home.

BILLIONAIRES' TAX LOOPHOLE

Mr. KENNEDY. Mr. President, the Joint Committee on Taxation has now completed its long awaited study on the billionaires' tax loophole, and their
